

MOBILE PHONE POLICY

In the primary context, contacting parents will always be done through the school. In the event that your child is required to use a mobile phone to contact parents after school/travelling home on school transport, mobile phones should be kept in your child's school bag and switched off during the school day.

As a school, we do not accept any responsibility for any damage or loss of a mobile device.