Termly Class Curricular Newsletter

Class: P5/6/7
 Term: 2
 Teacher/s: Mrs Middler & Mrs Fowler

Literacy

This term...

In writing our focus is on imaginative text, creating our own characters, setting and plot.

In reading we will continue to enjoy exploring new books and having protected time to read books of our choice.

In listening and talking we will be discussing our book study novel in groups and as a class – asking questions and sharing our opinion.

Numeracy

In number we will be focusing on subtraction methods. We will also continue with our work on multistep word problems.

In other areas of numeracy we are learning about 2D and 3D shape then will be move onto money.

Health and Wellbeing

During P.E. this term we will be using our skills to design and complete an obstacle course, building upon our fitness and agility levels.

We will be beginning to work through the 'Zones of Regulation' program to develop our understanding of emotions and body language in ourselves and others.

Other Curricular Areas

This term our context for learning is a book study of 'The Borrowers'. We will be exploring characters, setting and plot through the use of the authors vocabulary and imagery. We will also be looking at creating items in small scale and how everyday items can be used for different things.

In French we will focus on writing what we have previously learned. This will include greetings, saying our names, ages and where we live.

In Art and Design we will follow a design brief and be creating gardens in groups for our Borrowers House.

In RME we will be touching upon the Christmas Story and traditions in other world religions at this time of year.

Homework

Homework will be handed out on a Monday and due in the following Monday. It can be handed in at any point during the week if completed. (Please see note inside the cover of your child's homework jotter for more information).

Notes

Please bring a water bottle every day. Please also bring a P.E. kit every day as P.E. times may change and your child may require a change of clothes if they get muddy or spill something on themselves. Please also name items of clothing as many items get misplaced during the day. Please bring appropriate footwear and outdoor clothing for coming into the colder months.
