Termly Class Curricular Newsletter

Class: P567

Term: 4

Teacher/s: Mrs Middler & Mrs McPike

Literacy

This term...

In writing we will be revisiting different types of genre, such as imaginative, factual and personal.

In reading we will continue to enjoy exploring new books and having protected time to read books of our choice.

In listening and talking we will be learning about different types of questions (literal, inferential & evaluative) along with interpreting between fact and opinion.

Numeracy

In number we will be learning about multiplication and division along with expressions & equations and patterns & relationships.

In other areas of numeracy we will be learning about fractions, time and data analysis.

Health and Wellbeing

During P.E. this term we will be learning some sports that are in the Olympics such as Handball and Athletics.

We are still working through the 'Zones of Regulation' program to develop our understanding of emotions and body language in ourselves and others and this will continue throughout this term.

Other Curricular Areas

This term our context for learning will be broadly about geography and through this we will be learning about farming and land use, oceans and continents and also touching upon the Olympics nearer the end of term.

In RME will be looking at practices and traditions of other world religions. Considering the ways people worship, artefacts and religious festivals. Comparing these to Christianity.

We will continue to use French in our daily routines using vocabulary for numbers, days of the week, greetings and weather. We will also use the French dictionary to support our reading and writing in French.

This term Mrs McPike will continue to develop the Developing the Young Workforce materials. This will include the creation and publication of the school magazine.

Homework

Homework will be handed out on a Monday and due in the following Monday. It can be handed in at any point during the week if completed. (Please see note inside the cover of your child's homework jotter for more information).

Notes

Please bring a water bottle every day. Please also bring a P.E. kit every day as P.E. times may change and your child may require a change of clothes if they get muddy or spill something on themselves. Please also name items of clothing as many items get misplaced during the day. Please bring appropriate footwear and outdoor clothing for the weather.
